Athletes of 2014

At the Inaugural World Archery Gala in Las Vegas, World Archery revealed the official athletes of the 2014 season – as voted by the archery public and a panel of experts

Established for 2014, World Archery's Athlete of the Year awards recognise the best archers in the world for their exceptional performances throughout the year. The winners are chosen by the combination of a public vote, which ran from the start of December 2014 through to the end of January this year, and a poll of a panel of archery experts. Archers were nominated for the award by their national archery federations – with a shortlist of four plus each Archery World Cup final winner selected by the World Archery Office.

Revealed during a live broadcast ceremony during the first World Archery Gala, held after the first day of the Indoor Archery World Cup's testing in Las Vegas, the World Archery Athletes of 2014 were awarded trophies by guest stars peers and champions of the last decades.

World Archery also named its Newcomer of 2014, Coach of 2014, and Volunteer of the Year, an accolade designed to recognise exemplary service to archery at any level of the sport – as well as endorsement of the Year, the results of which are shown on page 55.
